

SAS NEW SECOND AUCTION SALEROOM

By Neil Shuttleworth, Special Auction Services

Special Auction Services are pleased to announce the successful acquisition of their second auction saleroom. As part of their growth strategy and further to the great success of the Specialist Auctions at 81 Greenham Business Park near Newbury, SAS will begin to run an Antiques & Collectables once a month from the new second saleroom which is 80 Greenham Business Park.

The Antiques & Collectables auction will take place on the first Tuesday of the month. Each auction will contain up to 1,000 lots of Jewellery, Silver, Works of Art, Paintings, Fine Art, Watches, Coins, Sports, Collectables, Glass, Ceramics, Furniture and much more.

The viewing for each sale will take place on the Friday and the Monday before the auction, along with on the day of the sale. There will be a £20 lot value and reserve to ensure lots are kept to a certain standard. The catalogues will be available online well in advance of the auction but there will be no live bidding as this will be a fast paced sale. In addition to all of this there will be a printed catalogue for each auction.

Thomas Plant, Director and BBC TV antiques expert said “We are absolutely delighted we will be able to offer the same great service as we do for specialist auctions, but now on a quicker turn around” He also went on to say, “As with our specialist auctions we will be paying people three weeks after each auction and lots will be offered at our current fixed rate commission with no hidden auction costs”.

“There is a great demand in the area for a good monthly antiques auction where people can buy everything from £20 to £2,000 and we are looking forward to opening the new saleroom very soon” added Thomas.
