

AMY WINEHOUSE T-SHIRT UNDER THE HAMMER

By Neil Shuttleworth, Special Auction Services (SAS)

A rare and important lot is coming under the hammer at SAS on 23rd May 2012. Donated by the Winehouse family is a T-shirt designed by and later worn by Amy herself.

The description reads: Amy Winehouse: A Twin Tipped Shirt. Designed by Amy in collaboration with British clothing brand Fred Perry & released in her Spring 2011 collection.

This shirt is one of Amy's personal items of worn clothing and has been donated by her father Mitch Winehouse to the 'Niamh's Next Step' (www.niamhsnextstep.com) fund raising appeal.

We are delighted to bring to auction this item on behalf of the appeal & it is sold together with a supporting letter from Mitch Winehouse of The Amy Winehouse Foundation providing full provenance.

Estimate is £4000-£6000 and click on the link below for the catalogue description:

<http://www.specialauctionservices.com/large/sp230512/page14.html>

It goes under the hammer at Special Auction Services in Newbury on 23rd May together with many of lots of music and entertainment memorabilia. ENDS

