

SAS join Society Of Fine Art Auctioneers (SOFAA)

SOCIETY OF FINE ART AUCTIONEERS AND VALUERS

Written by Neil Shuttleworth, Special Auction Services

From this month Special Auction Services (SAS) are delighted to announce that we are now a member of SOFAA.

This is quite an achievement and a privilege for us. It certainly illustrates to both our buyers and sellers that we are adhering to certain codes of conduct and good business practices within our industry sector.

We join a whole host of other auctioneers across the country, so please check out our press release on our news page for more details.

We were invited to join SOFAA by Clive Stewart-Lockhart who is on the committee and a former Chairman. Naturally we were extremely honoured and are looking forward to a long association with the society.
