

SPECIAL AUCTION SERVICES

APRIL 2013 NEWSLETTER

We hope this finds you well and you enjoyed your Easter.

We have quite a few exciting sales over the next couple of weeks, together with several other interesting bits of news. Have a read and hopefully we can see you at the auctions!

TRAINS FOR THE COLLECTOR

This sale has been put together as an additional Trains only auction. As you know we would normally sell the toy and model trains through our regular toy auctions. With our continued success as one of the leading Toy & Train auctioneers in the country we have put this on this specialist auction for you train fans.

Included in the auction are well over 600 lots of narrow through to wide gauges of toy and model trains. Also included, as we do for Trains Galore is memorabilia, ephemera, books, paintings and other collectables.

JEWELLERY, SILVER, COINS & WORKS OF ART

The catalogue for the sale came back yesterday and looks fantastic. The auction includes a good section of fine and costume jewellery, together with silver and works of art. The sections include:

- Silver and Silver Plate – Including a collection of Tea Strainers
- Works of Art and Decorative Arts
- Natural History
- Medals and Militaria – including Part One of a collection of WWII German helmets

- A collection of Staffordshire Pot Lids & Prattware
- Pictures & Prints
- Coins – Including a private collection of good British copper
- Jewellery and Watches
- And Gold Coins

There will literally be something for everyone and to prove this go to our website over the next couple of days to view the sale, or click here to view the catalogue via the-saleroom.com

SIDE NEWS

STOP PRESS! DANIEL AGNEW JOINS SAS

We are delighted to announce that the highly regarded and knowledgeable Doll & Teddy Bear expert Daniel Agnew is joining forces with SAS. We have been selling Dolls & Teddy Bears well over the past 10 years, however, Daniel will be developing the department to become standalone auctions from the outset. In bringing his skills and expertise, the Doll & Teddy Bear department will grow to be world renowned for collectors. The first dates in the calendar will be in June and December, and we will give you some exact days shortly. We hope you can join us in welcoming him aboard...

MUSIC & CAMERA

The Two Day May auction is certainly shaping up to be a groovy sale! So far Alan has been busy cataloguing around 500 lots of Rock, Pop & Entertainment, including the Reggae record collection. Christopher Proudfoot has a good selection of Mechanical Music for you. Then on Day Two of the auction, the Cameras will total to around 600 lots of Vintage and Modern cameras and photographic equipment. We will notify soon once the catalogue is ready to view...

NEW JULY JEWELLERY AUCTION

Following the success of the March Jewellery auction, we are going to try and put another similar sale together for you in July. We already have quite a few lots in for sale, however, if you wish to consign any items for auction please contact Neil Shuttleworth on 01635 580 595.

General News:

Our latest acquisition to the SAS is certainly doing very well. Jonathan Brown has joined us a porter and trainee specialist for the Camera department. He is very busy cataloguing the next sale of Cameras for you in May...

Thomas Plant's filming of the next series of the Antiques Road Trip is well under way. So far, so good as he tells us he has been making a few buying profits as part of their tour around the South West of England. He has also been booked ready for another series in the Summer.

We will also be announcing some new members of the team here next month, however, if you are visiting us, we are sure you'll bump into them at the auctions...
